That Wonderful Year

MOORE HIGH SCHOOL

1965 "OWL"

The purpose of the 1965 OWL is to unfold the numerous events of the year as the seasons unfold---fall, winter, spring. The completed book is a collection of memories---memories of THAT WONDERFUL YEAR at our alma mater.

The seasons began with a warm autumn bringing us pep rallies, football games, and Homecoming. As winter came, the weather turned colder, and students quickened their steps in happy anticipation of Christmas vacation. We went to Stunt Show and basketball games trying to keep occupied to make the days skip faster to the best months of the year. Then, finally, spring came, and Moore High was at her best!

The music contests, senior play, track meets, baseball games, and Prom kept us busy, but not too busy to look toward graduation with mixed emotions.

So many thoughts and feelings were crowded together filling the last days of our senior year that it was difficult to resolve ourselves into the everconstant routine of the academic year. After entering the last fall term and realizing that we participated in Homecoming, Stunt Show, and Prom for the very last time, the final fleeting year was transformed into the best year ever; it was truly THAT WONDERFUL YEAR.

We, the Class of 1965, dedicate . . .

. . . Our Owl to Vicki Trenkle

In memory of our loyal friend and dependable classmate, we offer this book as a remembrance of Vicki Trenkle.

THANK YOU . . .

. . . Mrs. Mary Ceibert . . .

for playing a major part in our four years of success. You have led us in achieving worthwhile participation and unity in our class, qualities which have played a large part in our successful high school activities.

"Gone hath the Spring, with all its flowers,
And gone the Summers' pomp and show,
And Autumn, in his leafless bowers,
Is waiting for the Winter's snow.

I said to Earth, so cold and gray,
"An emblem of myself thou art";
"Not so," the Earth did seem to say,
"For Spring shall warm my frozen heart."

I soothe my wintry sleep with dreams
Of warmer sun and softer rain,
And wait to hear the sound of streams
And songs of merry birds again."

As the Class of 1965 began our long-awaited high school career, we looked toward our initiation, studies, and extracurricular activities with great anticipation and a little fear. Led by our class officers: Pres., Mike Doss; Vice-Pres., Tom Bodle; Secretary, Ron Turpin; and Treasurer, Dave Oberlink; we managed to survive our "freshmen initiation" feeling more a part of Moore High. Our first Homecoming was a thrilling time for us all, even though our advisors, Mrs. Ceibert and Mr. Williams, were not particularly thrilled when the freshmen float, "Farmers Will Raid The Hornets" received a lowly fifth place. The Homecoming game with Heyworth resulted in an easy victory for the "Farmers" with a score of 41-0. The play, "It's Cold In Them There Hills," was an exciting forerunner to the greatly anticipated coronation. Finally the moment came and Janet McKinley, our freshmen representative, had the honor of being crowned with the title of "1962 Homecoming Queen." After this exciting event had ended, it seemed as if Stunt Show was waiting just around the corner. The voting for Mr. and Miss Freshman resulted in the election of Steve Wendell and Shari Eubank as class representatives. The effort behind our first presentation of a Stunt Show skit was greatly rewarded by the first place trophy for our "Hawaiian Capers." The coveted prize ended a full and exciting "first year" at Moore High School.

We began our Sophomore year led by our class officers: Pres., Mike Doss; Vice-Pres., Pat Thomas; Secretary, Pat Sutton; Treasurer, Steve Wendell. This year was a very special time as we all had the honor and pleasure of knowing the first American Field Service student to come to Moore High, Haldor Ovreeide. Haldor not only crossed 7,000 miles and conquered a language and customs barrier, but also brought with him lessons in maturity, understanding, dependability, and diplomacy. It was truly an enriching experience to know him. When Homecoming time approached, our advisors, Mrs. Ceibert and Mr. Williams, were much more pleased with our first place float, "Farmers Have The Rockets' Number," than they were with our first and only failure the year before. The Homecoming game was very disheartening as Octavia won over the "Farmers" with a score of 35-0. The play, "If Boys Wore The Skirts," directed by Mrs. Budinger, did a lot to raise spirits and prepare everyone for the dramatic coronation. As the long-awaited moment finally arrived, Janet Reeser was crowned with glory the "1963 Homecoming Queen", bringing the honor to the Class of 1965 again. As Stunt Show time rushed upon us once more, preparations were underway for creating a new and even greater skit. It seems we achieved just that as we won another first place with our skit, "Show 'Biz In Uniform." Our election for Stunt Show representatives resulted in Dave Vance and Pat Sutton as Mr. and Miss Sophomore.

In our Junior year, the second foreign exchange student that came to Moore High was a charming French girl, Monique Chartier, who was just as delightful to know as Haldor. Her constant smile was a pleasing reminder of her sweet personality and gentle way. Our very competent class officers led us through a most victorious year. They were: Pres., Pat Thomas; Vice-Pres., Dave Vance; Secretary, Janet Reeser; Treasurer, Janet McKinley. Our Homecoming float, "Farmers Will Give the Cards a Merry Go 'Round," often termed our best attempt, brought another first place to the name of the Class of 1965. Farmer City ran over Jamaica during the football game with an ending score of 32-6. "Oil Wells and Wedding Bells," the Homecoming play, lent to the expectation of coronation. Pat Thomas was our representative for Homecoming queen, but our lovely foreign exchange student, Monique, was given the title of "1964 Homecoming Queen." Stunt Show came quickly and the excitement of "producing" Stunt Show spread throughout the entire class as Chuck Trenkle and Irene Stensel were chosen Mr. and Miss Junior. The terrible heaviness of heart and emotional disturbances due to the ghastly and untimely death of our great President, John Fitzgerald Kennedy, added a profound sadness to the fun and excitement of the time. The candy sales and the tea room were places of great anxiety during the day, but resulted in very profitable investments that night. Our best skit, "The Hidden Utopia," was presented this year and, as usual, our class received the coveted first place award. Our class sponsors, Mrs. Ceibert, Mrs. Bader, and Mr. Elliott helped us through the many planning stages of Prom and finally May 15 arrived. "After Glow" began with the banquet bringing fine food and the speaker, Representative Bill Scott, bringing an enlightening message. Upon entering the transformed gym, the multicolored blue setting with gardens on both sides met the eye, while a "real" waterfall cascading from the intricate backdrop on the stage gave an interesting illusion. The setting for the band produced an indescribably beautiful effect. The Casuals with Linda Burke added the finishing touch to the ornate setting as we all left the 1964 Prom in an "After Glow" of wonderful thought and memories.

Our final year was enlightened by the presence of Judy Cotton, our foreign exchange student from Australia. Her contagious smile and bouncy way were always a reminder that "things can't be that bad." Being an avid rooter of the senior class, the activities of the school year and the honors awarded us excited "Jude" as much as anyone. Our class officers: Pres., Janet Reeser; Vice-Pres., Dave Houser; Secretary, Janet McKinley; Treasurer, Chuck Trenkle; led us to a first place with our Homecoming float, "Farmers Have A Sure Hold On The Eagles." Deland-Weldon walked from the football field with a victory. The play, "He Tried With His Boots On," was an enjoyable distraction from the loss of the Homecoming game and a great prologue to the anticipated coronation. Shari Eubank, our class representative, had the thrilling honor of being crowned "1965 Homecoming Queen." Our advisors, Mrs. Reeder and Mr. Maynard, helped us to win another first place with our excellent skit, "Ham-A-Lot." Winning the first place trophy four years in a row was just a dream our first three years, but our senior year transformed that dream into a reality. Ron Turpin and Janet Reeser were chosen to represent the class as Mr. and Miss Senior while Chuck Trenkle and Janet McKinley were majestically dubbed with the scepter and the crown as Stunt Show King and Queen. After much contemplation and discussion our class chose to present the play "Tom Jones" by Henry Fielding. After arousing quite a lot of controversy concerning the idea, we felt that the Senior Class had to make a great production of the play--and we did. Steve Wendell as "Tom" and Janet McKinley as "Sophia" conveyed their character parts to the audience like "pros." And, of course, we will never forget the budding genius displayed in "Blifil" by Alan Holoch! There seemed to be a long wait between "the play" and Prom, but our anticipation was well rewarded. "Breath of Night" with its multi-colors of green and beautiful red roses blended together to make a novel and gorgeous Prom. As the days from that last important night dwindled down to almost nothing and we survived our last finals, graduation night finally arrived. With mixed emotions we received our diplomas and commenced our way through the experiences that life has to offer. We were joyful at the idea of finally being responsible for ourselves, sorrowful at the thought of leaving so many friends and memories, and highly expectant at the thought of the many adventures which life has to present each one of the class of 1965. With the close of this, our last year, a series of four eventful years was ended with "That Wonderful Year."

Dear Mr. Gronau,

As I was glancing through the "Farmer City Journal," my eyes fell upon this article concerning the lives of the graduates of the Class of 1965. I hope you will enjoy the enclosed clipping.

CLASS OF 1965 HOLDS REUNION

The Class of 1965 held a class reunion last Sunday. The discussion revolved about the present day activities of the graduates. From the reunion it was learned that:

Karen Amdor was named "Miss Suds" because of her work as leader of the Kuykendall laundromat. Carolyn Anderson is head librarian of the National Archives Building in Washington. Steve Baker is the chief pizza "baker" at the Italian Village. Tom Bodle was recently awarded the Nobel Prize for finding an error in Albert Einstein's calculations. Betty Burton is busy tending to her little groves (of moss, that is). Gilbert Cannon and Carl Duffner are partners in the newest industry of Farmer City—a printing press which makes playing cards "to cheat with." Linda Kirby is the secretary of the industry. Dianna Cleek is now married to the professor of world history at Illinois Wesleyan University and is living in an old Egyptian cave in Miller Park. Sharon Collins and Martha Short are alternating as the redhead models coming out of the Brylcreem tube. Judy Cotton is back in Australia raising angus cattle. Carla Donaldson has replaced Betty Crocker. Now everyone is making Carla Donaldson cakes. Mike Doss is a clothes designer and has recently developed a frontless shirt for men. Connie Durbin has received her Ph. D. in business education and has replaced Miss Marshall. Diana Owens is Connie's right hand girl. Her specialty is coloring stencils. Shari Eubank recently won an Oscar for her portrayal of Elizabeth Taylor in the movie, "The Loves of Liz Taylor." Jean Gardner is the chief butcher at the Farmer City A & P Store. Everett Goins and John Miller just published a new bookkeeping book entitled HOW TO DO IT THE HARD WAY. David Grimes is the lead guitarist in a combo called "Dave and the Goliaths." Mike Edmonds is one of the Goliaths playing bass harmonica. Alan Holoch, chief surgeon at a near-by clinic, recently discovered the cure for lung cancer. Dave Houser is working hard at developing a harmless electric chair. Butch Tharp is trying to generate the electricity for it. Sandy Howe is the first lady trombonist to play in Lawrence Welk's band. Martha Hudson recently beat Cassius Clay for the World's Heavyweight Boxing Title. Rick Keysear has set the Indianapolis Speedway record for 1975. We don't know what his average speed was, but we do know it took him two hours to stop. Charles Lane now has a permanent residence on Lover's "Lane." Mike McCartney is a tackle for the Chicago Bears. He is casually known as the jolly green giant. Janet McKinley is secretary of the Farmer City Hereford Association. Albert Parr is demonstrating jeeps on TV commercials. Because of her achievements as class president, Janet Reeser has become the first lady President of the United States. Steve Reeser, owner of the Greatest Show on Earth, has just bought Moore High as a place to winter his circus. His disc jockey show originates from the gym every Saturday night. Nurse Maren Rick is being fought over by Drs. Kildare and Casey between operations. Because of Will Rogers' noted fame, our Willie Rogers has changed his name to Clark Gable. Genreva Schmitz is the grand champion player of the television quiz show "Who Can Talk a Mile a Minute?" Irene Stensel is now the operator of "Irene's BODY Shop." Frank Tharp is a stunt pilot for the US Air Force. Pat Thomas has a job as the coat check girl at the USO. Chuck Trenkle is working as a janitor in the Playboy Club. Ron Turpin is the first white boy to play on the Harlem Globetrotters. Dave Vance has attended and graduated from college, but the only thing he got was his MRS. He is now running demolition races at intersections west of town. Tom Weber was just given a trophy for the grand champion in the Liar's Club of America. Steve Wendell, the Tom Jones of Moore High, is directing the Senior Plays in his spare time as an instructor. Mike Williams is the editor of "Esquire" magazine.

Well, that's your feature story for today. See you in another ten years.

Sincerely,
"Tom Jones"

"All the complicated details of the attiring and the disattiring are completed!
A liquid moon
moves gently among
the long branches.
Thus having prepared their buds
against a sure winter,
the wise trees stand,
sleeping in the cold."

CHRISTMAS

MERRIMENT

And what would you "little" boys like for Christmas?

HALLELUJAH! They've got shortin' bread!

What do you mean there's NO Santa Claus?

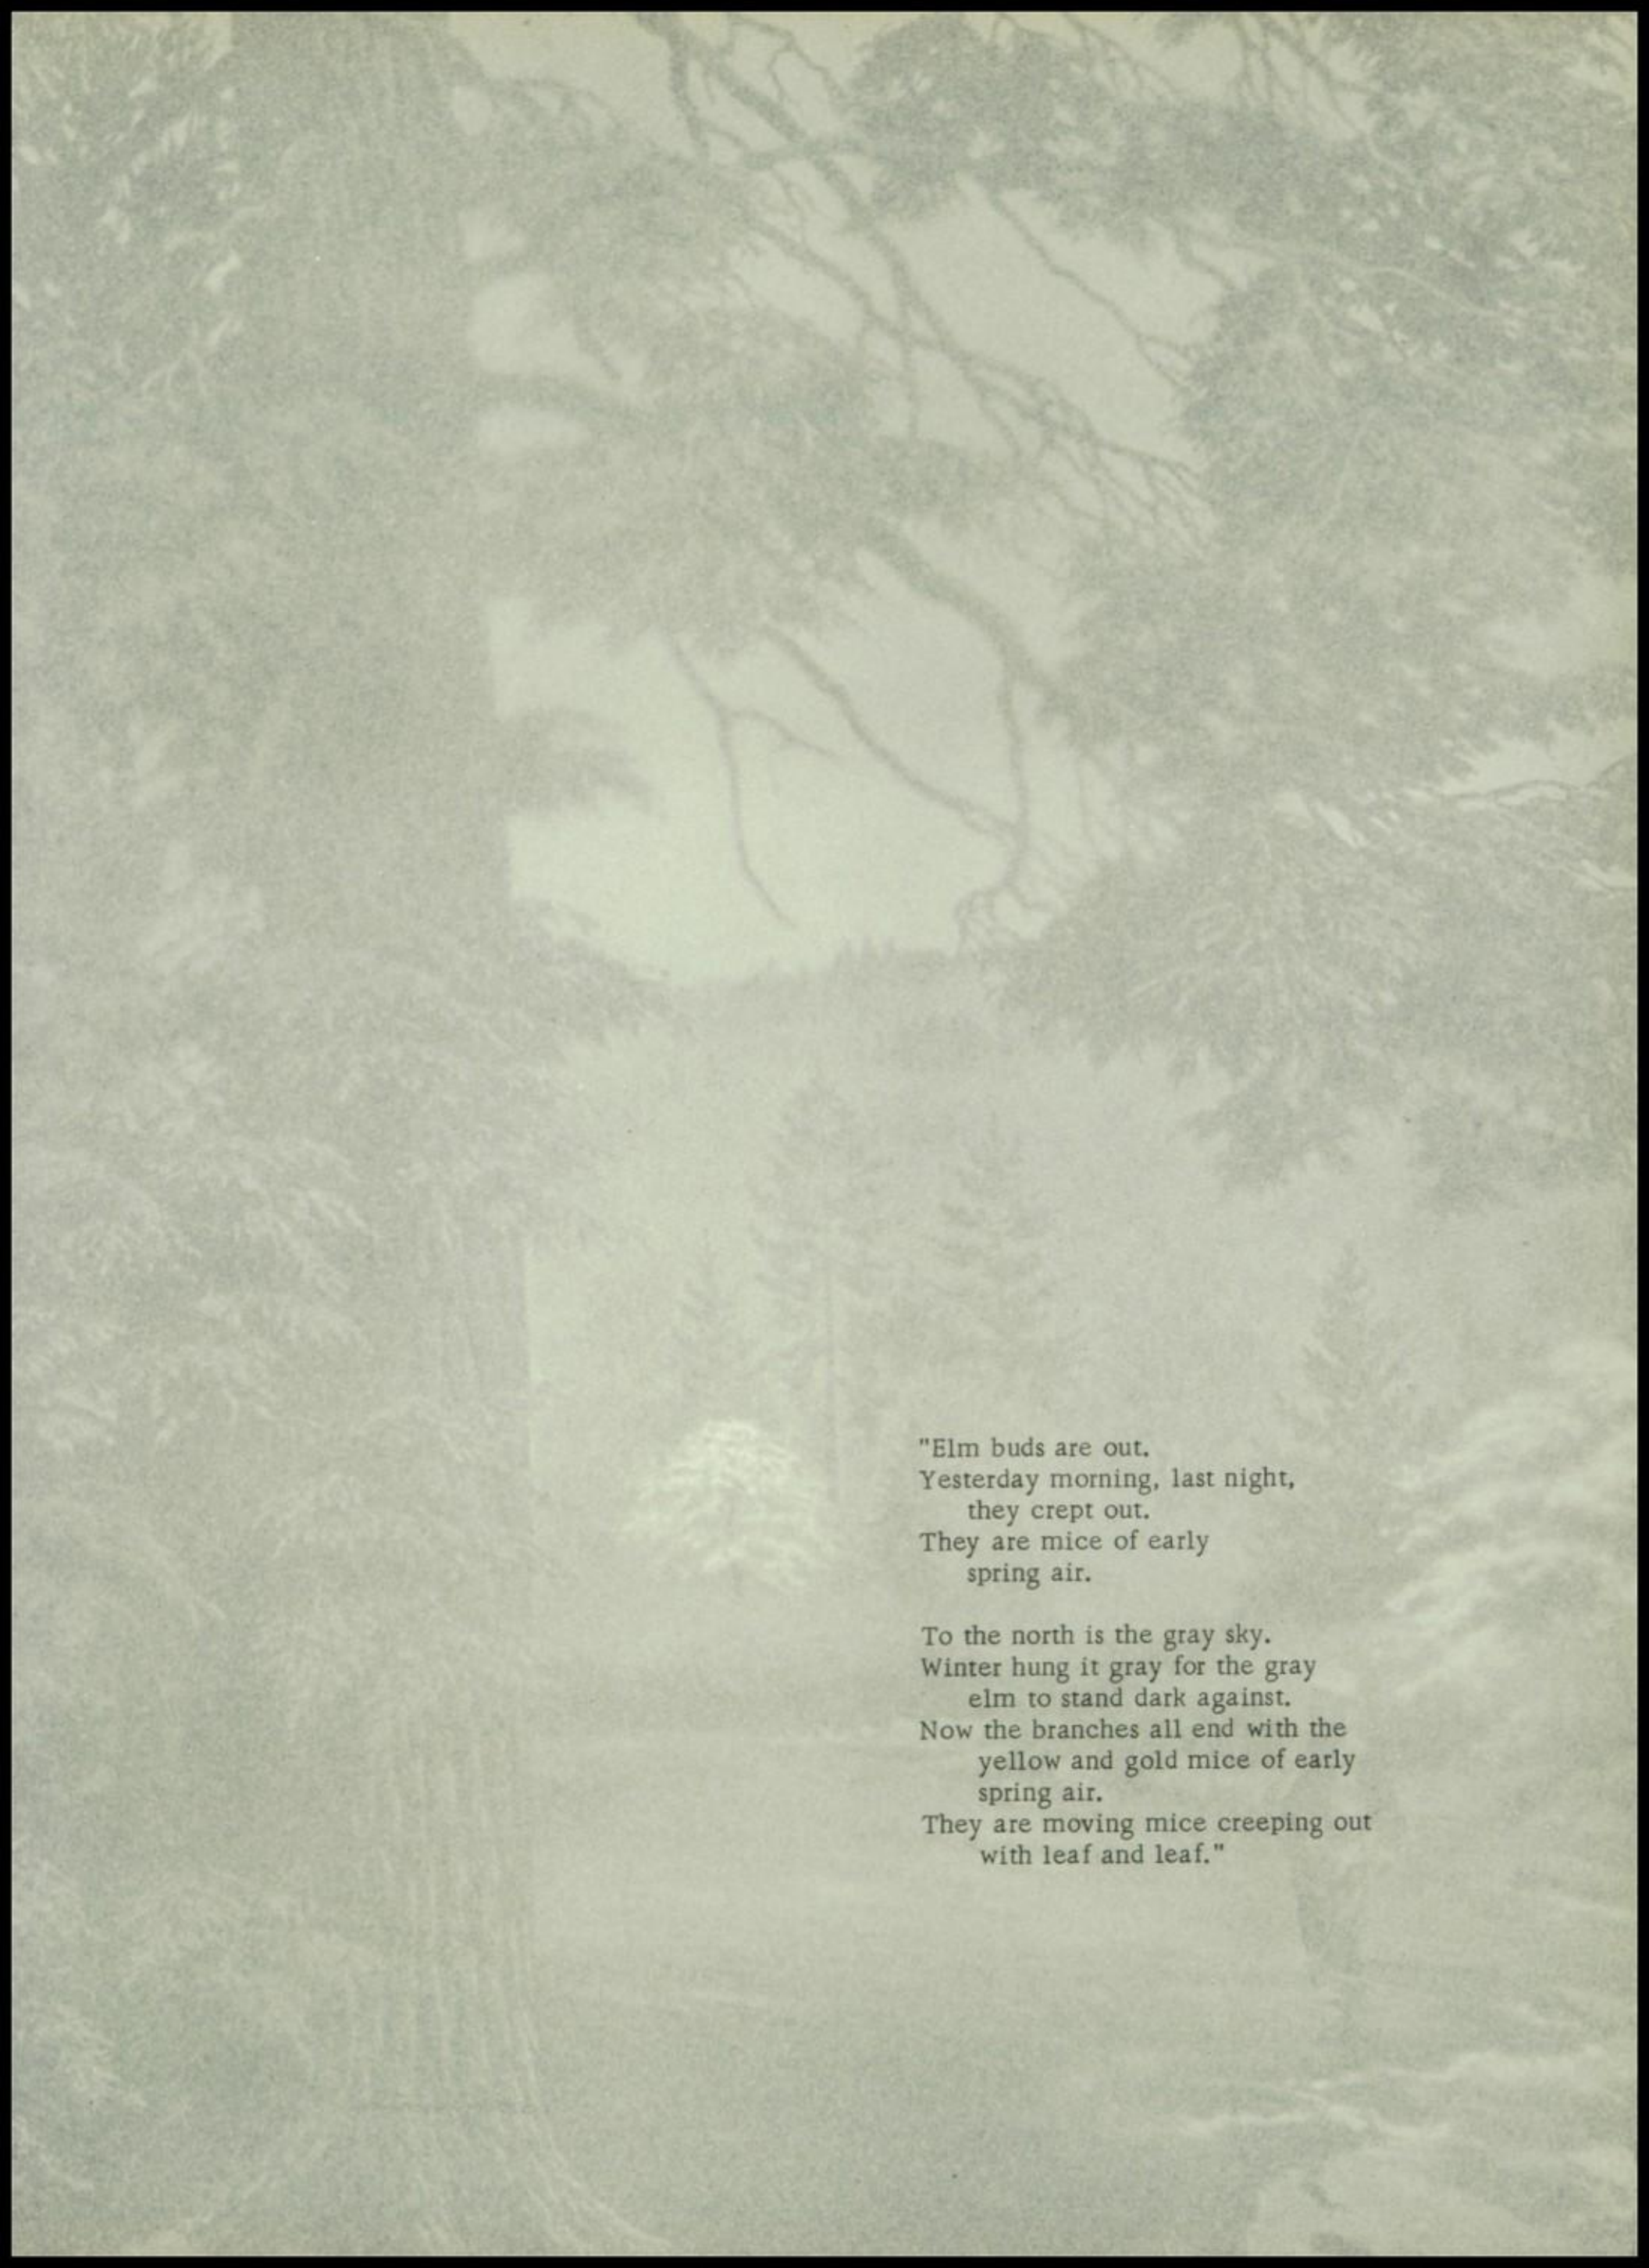

Wolfie got another doll?

LONG-UNDERWEAR! Some Christmas present.

A Happy Family.

"Elm buds are out.
Yesterday morning, last night,
they crept out.
They are mice of early
spring air.

To the north is the gray sky.
Winter hung it gray for the gray
elm to stand dark against.
Now the branches all end with the yellow and gold mice of early
spring air.
They are moving mice creeping out
with leaf and leaf."

CLASS OF 1965

"Four seasons fill the measure of the year;
There are four seasons in the mind of man:
He has his lusty Spring, when fancy clear
Takes in all beauty with an easy span:
He has his Summer, when luxuriously
Spring's honied cud of youthful thought he loves
To ruminate, and by such dreaming nigh
His nearest unto heaven: quiet coves
His soul has in its Autumn, when his wings
He furlth close; contented so to look
On mists in idleness--to let fair things
Pass by unheeded as a threshold brook.
He has his Winter too of pale misfeature,
Or else he would forego his mortal nature."
